Our Guest Speaker

Martyn Lovell, retired TA and Orthopaedic Consultant

Martyn was educated in the North West; he qualified in Medicine at Liverpool in 1988. He trained in Orthopaedics there and in Manchester. He was appointed to South Manchester University Hospitals in 1998 until 2022 when he had to retire with sickness.

He served ten years in the Territorial Army from 1990 until 2000, initially in Liverpool with 208 General / Field Hospital (1990-1997) and then in Manchester with 207 Field Hospital, as well as short periods of Regular service at The Princess Mary's Hospital, RAF Akrotiri in 1997 and at Royal Hospital Haslar in 1998.

He has a keen interest in military medical history and has written 57 articles mainly with a medal theme, see full list below.

Two of Martyn's recent articles are featured on the Friends of Millbank website, within our 'Fight Against Disease' sections on Sleeping Sickness and Yellow Fever:

The Tulloch Memorial Medal and Sleeping Sickness (Medal News, September 2022);
Yellow Fever and the Panama Canal - A Foreign Knighthood, American Surgeon General Gorgas (Medal News, December 2024/January 2025)
